

DANA ST. COMMUNITY GARDEN TENT EVENT

MEDIA RELEASE

Oct 5, 2018

Be a Part of Brockville's Newest Community Garden Plan

The Food Matters Coalition together with St. John Bosco School, Gemmell's Garden Centre, Transition Brockville, Volunteer Centre of St Lawrence-Rideau, the City of Brockville and The Leeds, Grenville and Lanark District Health Unit are planning the development of a community garden in the greenspace on the west side of Dana St. just north of Laurier Blvd. intersection. The plan is to have the garden up and going for the 2019 growing season.

The purpose of a community garden is:

- To grow healthy food
- To build community; strengthen neighbourhoods
- To support mental and physical well-being
- To promote intergenerational opportunities
- and collaboration
- To make the city more green

If you think community gardening could be for you and your family, please join us at the garden location Saturday, Oct 13, 2018 from 9am - Noon.
